Fund Code: 647-B-1

Addendum F

Fiscal Year 2010 Documentation of Consultation Regarding Non-Public School Participation

Applicant Name: _____

In accordance with the federal NCLB requirements, public school districts are mandated to consult with non-public school administrators about the needs of non-public school students who meet the eligibility requirements of the target population and how those needs can be best addressed by the 21st CCLC programs. Consultation with non-public school administrators must occur in a timely and meaningful way during the design and development of the program.

We certify the following non-public school representatives were contacted. They were offered a genuine opportunity to participate in planning and designing the 21st CCLC grant application and no final decisions were made prior to their being contacted.

Note: The signature below of the Applicant Superintendent or Equivalent Officer certifies that non-public schools were offered an opportunity to participate in the development of the application.
